

I am very concerned about the interference that BPL will cause to existing Amateur Radio services. It would seem that the majority of Americans can, or will soon, be served with Broadband connections via existing Telephone, Cable, Wireless and/or Satellite technologies, so BPL seems like a risk not worth taking.